REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: claims 1-12 are allowed over the prior art of record because all of references of the record, considered alone or in combination, fails to suggest or fairly teach a method of overwriting data in a write-once information storage medium, the method comprising a combination of the following steps: receiving a command to overwrite new data in a first area of the write-once information storage medium where data has already been recorded; determining the first area as a defective area and recording the new data in a second area; and recording updated defect management information, including information about the locations of the first and second areas, in the write-once information storage medium, as particularly recited in claim 1; or a method of overwriting data in a write-once information storage medium comprising a combination of following steps: receiving a logical address to store new data from a host; determining whether a first area with a physical address on the write-once information storage medium corresponding to the logical address is occupied with data and, if the first area is occupied with data, determining the first area as a defective area and recording the new data in a second area with a physical address different than the physical address of the first area; and recording updated defect management information, including the physical addresses of the first and second areas, in the write-once information storage medium as recited in claim 8. Claims 2-7 and 9-12 are allowed with their respective parent claim.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue
